

West Dunbartonshire Local Development Plan (LDP3)

Development Plan Scheme and Participation Statement

December 2023

West
Dunbartonshire
COUNCIL

Development Plan Scheme

Introduction

Thank you for your interest in West Dunbartonshire's Development Plan.

This Development Plan Scheme explains what a Development Plan is. It sets out what Development Plans are currently active in West Dunbartonshire and provides an estimated timeline for the preparation of a new Local Development Plan for the West Dunbartonshire planning authority area. It includes a Participation Statement which sets out how the planning authority (part of the Council) will involve the community and other stakeholders in the preparation of the new Local Development Plan.

What is the Development Plan?

The purpose of the planning system is to manage development and the use of land in the long term public interest. Development and land use in Scotland is “plan led”, making the Development Plan an important document for decision making. It is a statutory plan used by planning authorities to make decisions about what development takes place and how land is used in their area.

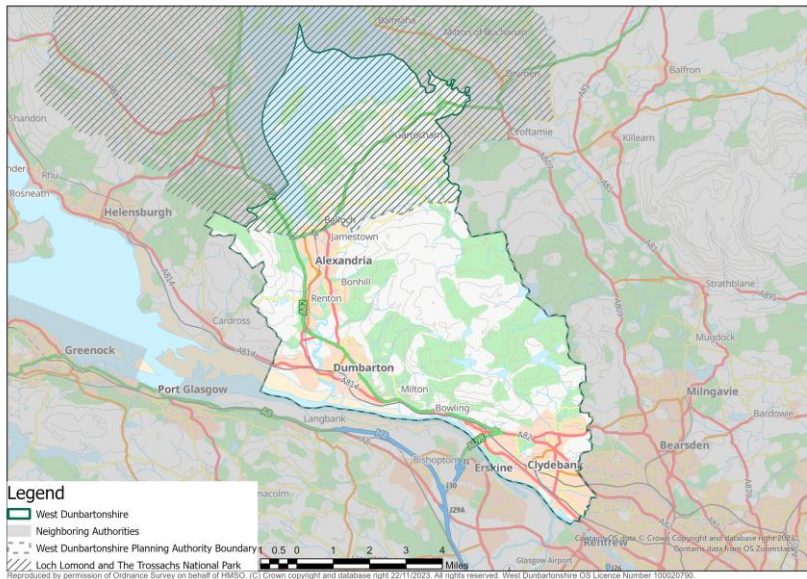

There are two main parts of the Development Plan. The first is the National Planning Framework. This is prepared by The Scottish Government, who formally adopted the Fourth National Planning Framework (NPF4) in February 2023. NPF4 sets a National Spatial Strategy for Scotland to 2045 identifying areas and types of development that are of national importance (National Developments) along with regional spatial priorities for five broad regions of Scotland. It also contains a set of policies used by planning authorities to make planning decisions (National Planning Policy). For more information, <https://www.gov.scot/publications/national-planning-framework-4/>

The second part of the Development Plan is the Local Development Plan, prepared by planning authorities. A Local Development Plan sets out how places will change, importantly identifying where and what development should and should not happen. It is a more detailed and specific plan for a local area which identifies infrastructure needs, allocates land for development, or for protection from inappropriate development. Local Development Plans can also contain policies which add greater detail or local context to policies in NPF4 or to address issues not addressed by NPF4.

Current Development Plans and Planning Guidance covering West Dunbartonshire

The West Dunbartonshire Council area is covered by two different planning authorities. The West Dunbartonshire Council planning authority area covers all of West Dunbartonshire with the exception of that area within the Loch Lomond and the Trossachs National Park, for which the Park Authority is the planning authority. The Park Authority prepares its own Local Development Plan and Development Plan Scheme which you can read more about at <https://www.lochlomond-trossachs.org/planning/planning-guidance/>.

West Dunbartonshire's Development Plan consists of NPF4 and the West Dunbartonshire Local Plan (2010). In addition, the Council also uses the Proposed West Dunbartonshire Local Development Plan (2020, as modified) as a material consideration in planning decisions, but as it was not adopted it is not a part of the statutory Development Plan.

The Council has a number of planning guidance documents relating to specific topics or places. These do not form part of the development plan but do form part of the decision-making process for planning application when relevant. A list of current planning guidance documents is set out in Appendix 1.

Preparing a new Local Development Plan

The Council has commenced preparation of a new Local Development Plan. This will be a 'new style' Local Development Plan, which will be prepared differently and have a different format, following changes introduced by the Planning (Scotland) Act 2019. The National Planning Framework (NPF4) now contains the detailed policy framework that was previously set out in old style local development plans. New style local development plans are expected to be place-based, people-centred and delivery-focused. With regard to format, this means that local development plans are expected to be place-based, visual plans with the inclusion of a clear spatial strategy, and a collection of maps, development briefs and masterplans, instead of lengthy written text and policy. Plans are to be prepared collaboratively with communities and other stakeholders, with people with protected characteristics given particular support to engage in the plan preparation process.

The preparation of the new Plan will follow statutory processes set out in the Planning Act and associated Regulations and Guidance. The key stages are:

Development Plan Scheme including Participation Statement – this document is produced annually and acts as a communication tool for letting stakeholders know when and how they can get involved in the local development plan process keep them informed of progress. It sets out the timetable for the preparation of the local development plan and what is involved at each stage of the process. The Participation Statement part of the document sets out how stakeholders are to be involved in the preparation of the local development plan. It is to include targeted methods to reach under-represented groups, help to make public participation inclusive, ensure that wider public engagement directly feeds into the preparation of the local development plan, and promote proactive engagement at all stages of the plan's preparation.

Evidence Report – the purpose of the Evidence Report is to support the quality and effectiveness of the Local Development Plan. Its aim is to gather and use evidence to clearly inform what to plan for before the Proposed Plan looks at where development should take place. Stakeholders' views are to be sought when preparing the Evidence Report.

Gate Check – the assessment of the Evidence Report by a Directorate and Environmental Appeals Reporter is known as the Gate Check. The Reporter can decide that there is sufficient information and the planning authority can move to prepare its Proposed Plan, or the Reporter may consider there is not sufficient information and provide recommendations for improving the Evidence Report. The Gate Check also provides an opportunity for the Reporter to consider and attempt to resolve disputes that may exist about the evidence submitted. The aim of the Gate Check is to reduce the level of debate at the Examination stage of the plan preparation process and made for a better evidence-led plan.

Proposed Plan – the Proposed Plan identifies where new development should take place and where it should not and articulates the ambitions and priorities for the future development of the Plan area. The preparation of the Proposed Plan is to be informed by community engagement and a wide range of other policy and strategy documents. The Proposed Plan is published for consultation. It is at this stage that representations can be submitted on the specific topics and proposals of the plan, for example on green belt, built heritage and proposed development sites. Proposed Plans can be modified following the consultation stage.

Delivery Programme – the Delivery Programme sets out how an authority proposes to implement its Local Development Plan. A proposed Delivery Programme must be published with the Proposed Plan. The Delivery Programme is a corporate document, which can influence the authority's financial investments, and support delivery of the Plan's policies and proposals to achieve Council priorities. It is to be reviewed and renewed at least every two years.

Examination – the Examination is the opportunity for independent consideration on any issues raised during the formal consultation on the Proposed Plan that have not been resolved through modifications. The Examination will be undertaken by a Reporter from the Directorate of Planning and Environmental Appeals. The Examination will consider unresolved issues following consultation on the Proposed Plan and also the consultation and involvement of the public in the preparation of the Plan. Following the Examination, the Reporter will prepare a report setting out reasons for their conclusions and recommendations, including modifications to the Plan.

Adoption – adoption is the final stage in the preparation of the Plan and occurs after the Council has received and considered the Examination report and any recommendations and modifications it proposes.

The estimated timetable for the preparation of the new Local Development Plan is set out below. Legislation requires for this to be set out in financial year quarters but the Council has included estimated months to ease understanding of the timetable.

Table 1: Local Development Plan (LDP3) timeline

Action	Estimated date
Publication of finalised Development Plan Scheme and Participation Statement	Quarter 3, 2023/24 (December 2023)
Publication of Evidence Report and submission for Gate Check	Quarter 3, 2024/25 (December 2024)
Publication of Proposed Plan and Draft Delivery Programme	Quarter 4, 2025/26 (January 2026)
Submission of Proposed Plan to the Scottish Ministers for Examination	Quarter 3, 2026/27 (October 2026)
Expected adoption of Local Development Plan	Quarter 2, 2027/28 (September 2027)

The preparation of the new Local Development Plan will be supported and informed by a number of assessment documents that will be concurrently prepared. These are:

Equalities Impact Assessment - The public sector equality duty stems from the Equality Act 2010 and places a duty on all public authorities to: eliminate discrimination, harassment and victimisation; advance equality of opportunity; and foster good relationships with people who share protected characteristics and those who do not. This assessment will outline how the council will meet this duty through the preparation and content of the Local Development Plan. Protected characteristics are age, disability, gender reassignment, sex (including pregnancy and maternity), race, religion and belief, and sexual orientation. The Equalities Impact Assessment will help the Council consider the effects of the plans proposals on different groups and meet the public sector equality duty. The assessment will also consider the potential effects on human rights.

Fairer Scotland Duty Assessment - The Fairer Scotland Duty aims to ensure the public sector makes policy decisions to deliver fairer socio-economic outcomes. This assessment will help the council make a plan which contributes to reducing socio-economic inequality and deprivation.

Strategic Environmental Assessment - The Strategic Environmental Assessment is a requirement of the Environmental Assessment (Scotland) Act 2005. Its purpose is to help the Council understand the potential environmental impacts of the plan and take steps to avoid, mitigate or reduce significant adverse environmental effects, where possible, or enhance positive ones. This will also help the Council to understand the environmental context of the area and consider how the plan can achieve better environmental outcomes.

Child Rights and Wellbeing Impact Assessment - The Child Rights and Wellbeing Impact Assessment will help the council consider the plans effect on the rights and wellbeing of children and whether they are protected and advanced.

Habitat Regulations Appraisal - The Habitat Regulation Appraisal is a requirement of The Conservation (Natural Habitats, &c.) Regulations 1994. Its purpose is to identify if the plan will be capable of having adverse effects on European sites, alone, or in combination with other plans. This will help the council identify impacts on internationally important habitat and take steps to avoid these impacts.

Other Plans, Guidance and Strategies

The Planning (Scotland) Act 2019 introduced the requirement for a number of other plan and strategy documents to inform and improve the planning system in Scotland. These are:

Local Place Plans – these are community-led plans focused on the development and use of land in the area covered by the Plan. West Dunbartonshire Council will issue an invitation to communities to prepare Local Place Plans and will set out what assistance the Council can offer with their preparation. Once prepared, the Council will validate properly-prepared Local Place Plans and take them into account when preparing the Local Development Plan. Additional information on Local Place Plans can be found at <https://www.west-dunbarton.gov.uk/council/key-council-documents/local-development-planning/local-place-plans/>. The Council is preparing a Local Place Plans 'How-to' guide targeted at West Dunbartonshire communities. It will be available by March 2024.

Regional Spatial Strategies – are to be produced by a planning authority, or jointly by a group of planning authorities, and will set out a long-term spatial strategy in respect of the strategic development of the area it covers. The West Dunbartonshire planning authority area is likely to be included within a Regional Spatial Strategy covering the Glasgow City-Region area.

Local Place Plans and Regional Spatial Strategies will not be part of the Development Plan but will inform the content of the Local Development Plan.

Planning Guidance – The Council may prepare non-statutory planning guidance to provide additional and detailed guidance on certain matters, for example on a specific topic or relating to a specific place.

Open Space Strategy – planning authorities are required to prepare a strategy setting out a strategic framework of policies and proposals for the development, maintenance and use of green infrastructure, including open spaces and green networks. The strategy is to contain an audit of existing open space provision and an assessment of current and future requirements. The Council will consult on the findings of its audit and the Open Space Strategy.

Play Sufficiency Assessment – planning authorities are required to assess the sufficiency of play opportunities for children in preparing the Evidence Report for the Local Development Plan. The Council will consult on its Play Sufficiency Assessment.

(As at December 2023, West Dunbartonshire Council has almost completed the initial open space audit including the noting of locations of play opportunities.)

Forestry and Woodland Strategy – planning authorities are to prepare a strategy which identifies woodlands of high nature conservation, and sets policies and proposals for the development of forestry and woodland, and the protection, enhancement and expansion of woodlands. The Council will consult on its Forestry and Woodland Strategy.

Participation Statement

The Scottish Government intends the preparation of the Local Development Plan to be a collaborative process. Local Development Plans are expected to be place based, people centred and delivery focused. The involvement of all stakeholders within the planning process will be required to achieve this, including:

- local communities;
- services within the council;
- service providers, infrastructure providers and government agencies outside of the council (sometimes referred to as Key Agencies);
- businesses and other organisations; and
- developers and land and property owners.

The Participation Statement sets out how we will achieve this by identifying who we will include, how we will keep them informed, how they will be included, what methods we will use to include people, and when engagement will take place.

Who we will include

Legislation requires planning authorities to involve the public at large in preparing a Local Development Plan, however there are also specific groups that planning authorities need to include, which are:

- children and young people (those under the age of 25);
- people with disabilities;
- Gypsies and Travellers; and
- Community Councils

There are other groups that guidance states should be given support to engage with the Local Development Plan process including people with protected, as well as people from a range of socio-economic background.

Children and Young People

There will be three main ways we will include children and young people. We will:

- engage with the Youth Parliament Representatives for the West Dunbartonshire Planning Area,
- engage with the West Dunbartonshire Youth Council
- engage with schools (including early education, primary, secondary, and special needs schools).

We will also reach out to known youth groups in the area and ask if they are interested in engaging in the Local Development Plan process.

People with disabilities

There are a number of existing disability groups known to the council we will reach out to and request their input to the Local Development Plan process.

We will also consider the barriers to engaging with people with disabilities and how to overcome them, to provide opportunities to fully engage. This will include providing information in an accessible format.

Gypsies and Travellers

We will approach existing contacts we have for Gypsy and Traveller communities to discuss their needs.

Community Councils

We will use existing channels of communications to contact active community councils. In areas where there are no active community councils we will seek the views of other active community groups in these areas

How we will keep you informed

We will keep the public up to date by publishing regular updates on the plan preparation milestones listed in the Local Development Plan Scheme. Updates will be published to the Council website, posted on social media, and circulated via a newsletter for those who wish to sign up to this.

Some stages of plan preparation require us to advertise in local newspapers, including

- inviting communities to make Local Place Plans
- publishing the Proposed Local Development Plan
- advertise the examination of the Local Development Plan
- publishing a report of modifications to the Plan
- the adoption of the Local Development Plan

We will make key documents available in libraries at the appropriate times, including the Evidence Report and Proposed Local Development Plan.

How we will involve and collaborate with you

We will use a variety of methods to engage with specific groups as well as the public at large. We will hold public consultations to collect ideas for and views on proposals within the Local Development Plan, using online survey tools and public events.

A survey of the Citizens Panel will collect information about places across West Dunbartonshire. Information about the Citizen's Panel, including how to get involved, can be found here: Citizens Panel West Dunbartonshire Council \(west-dunbarton.gov.uk\)

We will hold a 'Call for Ideas' consultation for communities, developers and landowners to identify sites for development and preservation, as well as other proposals for inclusion in the Local Development Plan.

We will work directly with Community Councils and other local community groups to identify key issues and opportunities for their local area, and to work together on development briefs and masterplans.

One of the most direct ways communities can influence the plan is by making a Local Place Plan. We have invited communities to make Local Place Plans and we will support communities with this process. The contents of Local Place Plans are decided by their community, and once completed and validated are considered when preparing the Local Development Plan.

The tools, materials, and methods we will use to involve you

A variety of tools and materials will be used to reach as many people as possible and to reduce barriers to participation as far as possible.

Published information and the proposed plan will be provided in accessible formats. This will include information published online and in physical information left in public places.

We will collect ideas and views using the Councils online survey platform 'Survey 123'.

The Place Standard tool will help us to collect and focus views about a place. The Place Standard asks people to score and provide commentary about different aspects of a place, such as where they live or work. This includes questions about green space, traffic and parking, access to services, and influence over decisions in their place. This will help us to identify the strengths and weaknesses of places in West Dunbartonshire. The tool will be used in a variety of formats, including: in online surveys; at meetings with specific groups, community councils, and community organisations; and at consultation events. Different versions of the tool will be used in specific context, such as the version for children and young people. Communities making local place plans will be encouraged to make use of the tool. More information on the tool can be found here: <https://www.ourplace.scot/>

The table below sets out the different stages of the Local Development Plan and, in more detail, the engagement activity that will be undertaken at each stage. It has been informed by the Scottish Government consultation draft guidance on 'Effective Community Engagement in Local Development Planning' (May 2023) and is based on the following levels of engagement: inform; consult; involve; collaborate; and empower.

Delivery - Monitoring and Delivery	Publish information on monitoring and delivery	Ongoing	Publish an updated Delivery Programme at least every two years and make available on Council website and local public libraries. Publish annual land use survey information on Council website.

Impact assessments

The preparation of the Local Development Plan is to be supported and informed by a number of assessment documents. These documents have engagement requirements, which are summarised in the table below which has been lifted from the consultation draft Scottish Government guidance on Effective Community Engagement in Local Development Planning.

Table 3: Local Development Plan (LDP3) impact assessments

Assessment	Level	Engagement needs and timing
Strategic Environmental Assessment	Inform Consult	Legal requirement for 'early and effective' public engagement. Engagement is focused on the Environmental Report consultation, but earlier engagement is recommended. A Post Adoption Statement is prepared, published and advertised to inform people about how the assessment findings and comments received on the proposed plan and Environmental Report have been taken into account.
Habitat Regulations Appraisal	Inform	No requirement for public engagement. Report to be published at the proposed plan stage to inform people of the appraisal.
Public Sector Equality Duty Assessment	Inform Involve	The timing of the publication of the assessment could usefully be set out in the Development Plan Scheme. Proportionate involvement is needed throughout the process, from the early preparation stage to its delivery. The planning authority should publish the assessment findings on their website to inform stakeholders about it. Legally the results should be published within a reasonable period, and guidance suggests this should be as soon as possible after the decision to implement (adopt) the policy is taken.
Fairer Scotland Duty Assessment	Inform Involve	It is important to involve relevant communities through the stages of assessment. The assessment should be published to inform people about how socio-economic disadvantage is being considered.
