3. THE PREMISES

Description of premises

Stock room in leased premises at the Polaroid Eyewear Building in Alexandria.

The room is used as a stock room only and our wines will be held here before being processed to send to Amazon fulfilment centre in Wales

Description of activities to be carried on in the premises (please give full detailed description of the event/activities & approx numbers attending)

Our business is online retail and we sell Lebanese Fine Wines. Once our wines are delivered to our premises they are packed and sent to Amazon Fulfilment centre in Wales. Amazon will fulfil all of our customers' orders.

We have applied for a permanent premises license as Amazon requires this for our company to sell our wines via their distribution centre. In the meantime our sales of wine are blocked and we are applying for an occasional license to cover the period when we are granted a permanent license to sell our wines online.

During the Christmas season our sales are much higher and we require the occasional license to allow us to sell again on Amazon.

We do not and will not sell to customers from our premises as we only sell online.

3. THE PREMISES

Description of premises

A single storey, brick built property which is set back from the main road. The premises is currently operating as a family restaurant, serving a range of international cuisine. An application for a full premises licence has been recently submitted to West Dunbartonshire Licensing Board

Description of activities to be carried on in the premises (please give full detailed description of the event/activities & approx numbers attending)

As a full licence application has already been made, we are seeking an occasional licence to allow the business to establish a full drinks service in the short term, prior to the full application being formally considered by the board.

The premises operates as a traditional-style family restaurant and the nature of the proposed activities will be the same as outlined in the full licence application. Specifically, the service of food and drinks, in keeping with the style of a family restaurant. There will be no live music or other entertainment and any music will be limited to discreet "background" music.

The capacity of the premises (as outlined in the layout plan) is 49 and so the maximum number of numbers attending would be 49 at any given point
