The Premises has received two compliance visits under the Licensing (Scotland) Act 2005. The first inspection, carried out on 11 January 2010 reports that the premises were not fully compliant, however full compliance was achieved thereafter.

As regards the failure to display the premises licence, it was reported that this was also held at the Licence holder's home address and assurances were given that this would be on display in the future.

The Premises has been issued with one Section 14 notice on the 15 February 2010 after all attempts to gain payment of the annual licensing fee were exhausted. This matter was resolved by shortly thereafter.

The premise has been visited on four other occasions by Licensing Standards Officers. The nature of these visits was merely advice and guidance and this is not relevant to this review request.
