EMERGENCY NOTICE OF MOTION

This Council notes that 59% of Council staff have withdrawn from the Leisure Services concessionary scheme with effect 26 April 2011.

The withdrawals mean that instead of generating income of £100,000 the removal of the concessionary memberships have resulted in the loss of £55,000 revenue.

Council therefore calls on the Chief Executive to bring forward a report to the May Council to facilitate a change to this decision.

Councillor R. McColl asked Councillor Rooney whether he would be willing to accept as an addendum that the report be brought forward to the next meeting of the Housing, Environmental and Economic Development Committee instead of Council. Councillor Rooney indicated he was willing to accept the addendum and, thereafter, the Council agreed to approve the motion by Councillor Rooney, as amended.

The Meeting closed at 6.45 p.m.
