

NOTES

1. Section 56 of the Licensing (Scotland) Act provides that only:–

- The holder of a premises licence;
- The holder of a personal licence; or
- A representative of any voluntary organisation

is eligible to apply for an occasional licence

2. Where alcohol is to be sold for consumption on the premises, the Act requires that a clear statement be made as to whether children or young persons are to be allowed entry and, if they are, a statement of the terms on which they are allowed entry

3. Data Protection Act 1998

The information on this form may be held on an electronic register which may be available to members of the public on request.

4. Information on the Licensing (Scotland) Act 2005 is available on the website of OPSI (<http://www.opsi.gov.uk/legislation/scotland/acts2005/20050016.htm>)

Advice on how to complete section 3 of the application.

Description of Premises

- If the premises are an existing building, fully describe the premises giving details on location, access, how many rooms /floors it has, where alcohol is to be served from and toilet provision. Note that this information is not necessary if the application is for an Premises which holds a Premises licence i.e. a members club.
- If the premises are a temporary structure(s), please give full dimensions of the structure(s) including length, width and height. Where there is to be an area for consuming alcohol outwith this structure, you should show the full dimensions of the area to be licensed for the sale and consumption of alcohol, and from where alcohol is to be sold. The best way of informing of this should be via a layout plan which shows all the areas to be included within the licence.
- If the premises are open air this area should be fenced off or contained within a physical boundary.

Description of Activities

All activities to be carried out during the licensed hours should be listed, including but not restricted to;

- Name of any person hosting the event, i.e. if a celebratory event the name and contact details of the person(s) whose celebration is being held within, or in the case of a caterer applying for the licence, the name and contact details of the person(s) who may have booked the event, and the reason for the event. Where the event is a birthday party, the age being celebrated should be listed.
- Where the event is to raise money for any Charity, the full name and registered charity number should be listed. Where the beneficiary is to be someone other than a registered charity, their full name and contact details should be included in the application. Including a description of why the money is being raised.
- The expected number of persons to be attending the event.
- The name and contact details of any persons who may be performing at the event, such as DJs, Bands, Musical Groups, or any other entertainer who may be performing at the event.
- Whether or not there is an intention to steward the event.

You should note that any failure to list the full details of the activity could result in charges being brought against you under Section 1 (1) (b) of the Licensing (Scotland) Act 2005. If you are in any doubt as to what should be included within your application, you should seek advice from the licensing section on 01389 738741 or at licensing@west-dunbarton.gov.uk
