UNDERNOTE – details of conditions

Part E - Occasional licences

The holder of the occasional licence must make sure that:-

1. The licence holder or another suitably trained person with managerial responsibility is present throughout the licensed hours and when alcohol is served. A contact phone number will be readily available at all times.
2. The licence holder will ensure that their contact details including a contact phone number, or those of a personal licence holder if application is made in their name, will be readily available at all times for Police, Licensing Standards Officers or other Authorised Officers.
3. The occasional licence is to be kept on the premises and made available for inspection when requested by a Licensing Standards Officer or Police Officer, and any reasonable request by them is complied with.
4. All staff employed in a position involving the sale or service of alcohol to undergo a minimum of two hours training prior to commencing duty (as defined in the Licensing (Training of Staff)(Scotland) Regulations 2007) with a record of this training being kept at the location and available for inspection by

Police or Licensing Standards Officers. [Will not be applied to licences held by voluntary organisations.]
